The coastal walkway

Accessible to all
 Some difficulties due to steep paths
 Tricky and technical sections, or very steep
 Approximate times, one-way
 Not accessible to pushchairs - Dogs allowed on a leash
 Closed shoes recommended

From Saint-Tropez to Cap Pinet ▶ 14km - 4h30 -

Circuit A
 The Bay of Pampelonne ▶ 5km - 1h30 -

Circuit B
 The Inlet of Bonne Terrasse ▶ 0,5km - 15mn -

Circuit C
 Bonne Terrasse - Cap Camarat ▶ 2,5km - 30mn
 As Circuit B + extra parking (30 places) along the road to the restaurant Chez Camille.
 Take "Circuit B" and follow on, or join it from the footpath which leads to the beach of Bonne Terrasse. Go along the sea-front to the barrier, then :
 . - The road on the right will lead you gently up to the Lighthouse, which you will reach after about 500m.
 . - 30mn - The steep road on the left over the sea, leads up to the Rocher des Portes or 'Bird Island'.
 Possibility of climbing up to the Lighthouse (15mins up a path on the right).

Circuit D
 Cap Camarat - Plage de l'Escalet ▶ 4,5km - 2h20 - at the bottom of the Camarat lighthouse This itinerary starts with a succession of ups and downs along the rockface, before coming to sea-level along Escalet Beach and its little private harbour. Discover the outcrop of the Napoleonic Battery, the village of Merlier (35 houses built in the 1960's by the architects known as MONTROUGE, combining traditional and modern features) ; the Château Volterra (a private residence from the 1900's) and the Escudeller Rock (commemorating the submarine missions and escape of the banner of the 2nd regiment of Dragons during the Second World War).

Circuit E
 Plage de l'Escalet - Isthme du Cap Taillat ▶ 2km - 35mn
Recommended with children
 2 indicators : yellow and blue

Good to know : passage on a portion where the naturism is authorized.
 next to the tennis courts. Go down to the beach and take the path which goes down some steps to the right, (after the villa).
 Go up the Boulevard Praya, then to the left. Direct access to the footpath.

Undoubtedly the most beautiful stretch of the coastal walkway, with its backdrop of the isthmus of Taillat, which can be reached after a succession of rocky inlets. From the summit of Cape Taillat (a remarkable site protected by the Coastal Conservation bureau), you will marvel at the different colours of the sea-bed, which change with every breath of wind. Behind the Customs' House on the right, the path leads to the dolmen of the Briande Bay (a burial ground dating from 2000 BC) 10mn - Possibility of continuing to Cap Lardier (30 mn) and to Gigaro Beach 1h30 -

The unavoidable

Our beaches
 Discover the most beautiful landscapers of the Mediterranean coast. 6 roads to access to Pampelonne Beach from the coast road (D93) leading to parkings (paying in season) ; one road to access to the Escalet beach (parkings are free and paying).
Securised bathing : 4 rescue posts ensure your security in summer.
Accessible beaches : a beach chair is free and at your disposal for handicapped people at the rescue post at Boulevard Patch.
Dogs allowed on any beach in Ramatuelle kept on a leash!
Naturism : autorised on two parts of Pampelonne beach and tolerated in the coves of Canadel.

The marine path

Camarat lighthouse and it's surroundings

Beautiful view at 50 meters of the lighthouse (follow signs). The lighthouse started working in 1831. It is the 2nd French lighthouse for its height and luminosity : 130m above sealevel. No visits allowed.

The "Moulin de Paillass" is one of the highlights of Ramatuelle's rich heritage. Restored to its original condition in 2002, the mill includes a working mechanism made entirely of wood and a millstone for grinding wheat. Inquire about visits

Caves and vineyards
 Viticulture has existed since the ancient times in Ramatuelle., developed at first by the greeks and the romans. Today, the activity still holds an important role in the economy of the commune. More than 650 hectares of vineyards are cultivated, the production supplying the cooperative wine cellar "Les Vignobles de Ramatuelle" and several renowned domains. Inquire about visits
